

All Types and Ages Are Included Among German Prisoners Taken By Allies

Germany's desperate need of men to refill the depleted ranks of her armies in certain theaters of the war is shown by the widely divergent ages of prisoners taken by the entente forces.

Witness the personnel of this group, taken by the French at Hill No. 304. Some of them are boys in their middle teens. Others appear to be at least fifty. It is the same on all fronts here of late.

An interesting study in the various types of German soldiers may be made from the above photograph of a group of Boches captured by the allies at Hill 304. This hill stands on the east bank of the Meuse river and forms part of the famous Verdun battle area. The barbed wire, over which they are watching the photographer, fences them off from the rest of the countryside.

THREE-CENT STAMPED ENVELOPES MAKE DEBUT

New 3-cent stamped envelopes were delivered to Washington merchants by the postoffice today.

The new envelopes have a "purple" stamp. According to the expert stamp handlers, however, it is nearer a blue, and looks much like the 5-cent stamped envelopes. The stamp bears the head of George Washington.

The new 3-cent postal cards have the head of Thomas Jefferson, and are printed in a red a little lighter than the 2-cent stamps.

Little trouble has been experienced by the Washington postoffice in the underpayment of postage because of the new rates today. The public here was well informed of the new rates, but as a precaution, Postmaster Chance has decorated every letter box in the city with a placard setting forth the new rates.

Dandruff Makes Hair Fall Out

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle, and scraggy. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy, and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance, an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

Free Wood For the Poor, Will You Help Get It to Them?

Hundreds of cords of free firewood for the poor of this city—and no one to haul it.

If one business man with a truck will lend his services to the poor he will carry comfort and perhaps life to hundreds of people who cannot afford to buy even firewood at the present enormous prices.

This wood is in East Potomac Park—hundreds of cords. It belongs to the Government AND WILL BE BURNED NEXT WEEK unless some one has the charity to send a big truck for it.

The Associated Charities, the Salvation Army, Noel House, and the Central Union Mission will distribute the wood to the most needy persons if some one will haul the wood or a portion of it.

IF YOU HAVE A TRUCK AND WANT TO DO YOUR FELLOWS A REAL SERVICE, TELEPHONE TO ANY OF THE INSTITUTIONS MENTIONED.

HERTLING ACCEPTS CHANCELLORSHIP, HELFFERICH QUIT

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 2.—According to dispatches from Berlin, Count von Hertling has accepted the German chancellorship and the office of premier of Russia. Dr. Karl Helfferich, secretary of the interior, and Herr von Wadow, president of the German food regulation board, have resigned.

According to the dispatch, the post of vice chancellor is to be filled by Friedrich von Payer, progressive member of the Reichstag. Herr Friedberg, leader of the national liberty party, will become vice president of the Prussian ministry.

Adam Stuegerwald, general secretary of the Christian trade union, has been made life member of the first chamber of the Prussian diet. For the first time a representative of organized labor has entered the upper house.

ALLIES DROP BOMBS ON BAVARIAN PLANTS

LONDON, Nov. 2.—German munition factories in Bavaria were bombed by allied fliers, an official communication reports. Dispatches from Pirmasens, Bavaria, where the raid occurred, report one dead and four wounded, and considerable material damage.

The official British statement of the raid says:

"Today another successful raid was carried out into Germany. Munition factories at Kaiserlautern (Bavaria) were attacked by two groups of six machines each."

LIEUT. HARDEN MAY BE FIRST AMERICAN VICTIM

On the list of casualties among Pershing's men issued by the War Department, appears:

First Lieut. Devere H. Harden, signal officer of reserve corps, suffered a moderate shrapnel wound in the lower left leg on October 28, emergency address, Mrs. Josephine Harden, 44 Fifth street, Burlington, Vt.

Lieutenant Harden may have been "the first American wounded" mentioned in previous dispatches.

TURKISH WAR CRAFT SUNK IN BLACK SEA

PETROGRAD, Nov. 2.—Sinking of a Turkish torpedo boat in the Black Sea and burning of two steamships was officially announced today.

U. S. SHOULD TAKE WAR LEADERSHIP, OFFICIALS ASSERT

Demand that there be greater coordination of effort among the allies in order to conduct the war with the utmost possible force and energy is heard in many responsible quarters in Washington today. Partly, this is the result of the drive of the Germans and Austrians against Italy. Partly, it is due to the information that Russia, while not seeking separate peace, is economically so worn that she is in no position now to do aggressive fighting.

Instead of simply sending troops and ships to reinforce the allies and giving them loans of large sums, an increasing number of officials and members of Congress feel the United States must do more than that; that because of its aloof position it can take the broadest possible view of the war, and can exert commanding influence in organizing for the struggle not alone on the west front, but on all fronts.

MUST ASSUME LEADERSHIP

Senator James Hamilton Lewis, Senate Democratic whip, who has been here for the last two or three days, and who recently conferred with the President, declared the United States must assume a more and more prominent position in the war.

"We must assume the leadership and insure the defeat of Germany," said Senator Lewis.

Beyond any question, the Italian and Russian developments will be the subjects of much attention and discussion in Congress when it meets a month hence.

It is entirely possible, furthermore, that the question of declaring war on Austria will come before Congress. The possibility of sending American troops to Italy is not remote, according to good authority.

FIRE DAMAGES WAR PLANT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The Champlain silk mills of Brooklyn, which have been operating day and night on war orders, was seriously damaged by fire early today. The concern manufactures silk hosiery for government use in powder orders. The damage, which includes two other concerns in the same building, is estimated at $25,000. Effective wiring was said to be the cause.

THAW COMMANDS LAFAYETTE ESCADRILLE

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Lieut. William Thaw, of Pittsburgh, is now in command of the Lafayette Escadrille. He has succeeded Captain Thénault, the French officer who was placed in command of the unit when it was originally formed. Captain Thaw is suffering from nervous strain.

Lieutenant Verrier, whose brother is proprietor of a department store in San Francisco, is now second in command.

Sergeant Didier Masson, French by birth, but who lived in the United States most of his life, has been transferred from the front after recuperating from his wounds and hurts received in the air battle.

Walter Lovell, of Concord, Mass., has been promoted to the rank of adjutant.

James Norman Hall, author of "Kitchener's Mob," who was "knocked down" by a German two-seater machine in Belgium when the Lafayette Escadrille was stationed near Dunkirk, has returned to the front after recuperating from his wounds and hurts received in the air battle.

Walter Lovell, of Concord, Mass., has been promoted to the rank of adjutant.

FACULTY AND STUDENTS SNEER AT U. S. AGENT

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 2.—When eight members of the faculty and students of the University of Illinois appeared before him, refused to answer questions, and sneered at him, W. H. Kerriek, of Bloomington, Ill., an agent of the Department of Justice, filed charges with Governor Lowden.

Many of the instructors, when asked: "Are you a loyal citizen of the United States?" refused to answer, and their answers in general were not the kind a loyal citizen should make, according to the charges.

GREATER SACRIFICES MUST BE MADE IN U. S.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Burden already shouldered by America in carrying out her share of war financing are heavy, but the people must prepare for even further sacrifices as the war progresses.

We must learn to dispense still further with luxuries, and may have to give up some things we have regarded as necessities.

This is the declaration of F. W. Taussig, chairman of the United States Tariff Commission, in an address at the conference on "Financing the War," opened by the American Academy of Political and Social Association here today.

"WHITE SLAVERS" KEPT ACCOUNTS WITH GIRLS

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—An extended "white slave" ring numbering among its operatives hundreds of men and women was revealed to the police by Morris Wallack, after he had been in a cell for a few hours following his indictment upon a "white slave" charge.

The prisoner stated that girls under the power of the ring were tortured if they failed to make satisfactory returns, and that books were kept, these being separate accounts for each girl. It is believed the information now obtained will enable the police to break up the ring.

"PROHIBITION WILL AID SAFETY FIRST"—PULLMAN

"The safety first movement should achieve beneficial results from the putting into operation of the new prohibition law."

This today was Major Pullman's comment upon the inauguration next Monday of a safety first campaign.

William F. Peabody, president of the Safety First Association; Odell S. Smith, Sergeant, William S. Shelby, Buell Stanley, and William G. Stott, G. A. Lyon and others will be the speakers.

Major Pullman will be able to make addresses only a few times on account of the pressure of his duties.
